Interests: Language Variation and Change, Phonology, Bilingualism, Cognitive Science, Machine Learning

Academic Appointments

Assistant Professor of Spanish Linguistics	2020-Present
Department of Romance Languages and Literatures; Cognitive Sciences Faculty Villanova University (Villanova, PA)
Director, Language Use and Variation (LUV) Lab	2020-Present
Mendel Science Center G65-B (Web: https://luv-lab.info) Villanova University (Villanova, PA)

Other Appointments

Applied Scientist II	2021-Present
Amazon Prime Video (Remote); 0.2-0.5 FTE
Technical Program Manager, Data Quality	2019-2020
Alexa Applied Modeling and Data Services; Amazon (Cambridge, MA)
Language Engineer	2018-2019
Alexa Household Organization; Amazon Canada (Vancouver, BC)

Education and Training

PhD	Dual title in Spanish and Language Science, The Pennsylvania State University	2018
	Dissertation: Liminal voices, central constraints: Minority adoption of majority sound change
-	Visiting Scholar, University of Pennsylvania	2017
-	Visiting Scholar, Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics	2015
-	Linguistic Society of America Summer Institute, University of Chicago	2015
MA	Spanish, The Pennsylvania State University	2014
-	Fulbright Teaching Assistantship, Universidad Nacional de Río Cuarto, Argentina	2011
BA	Spanish, Truman State University	2010
BS	Mathematics, Truman State University	2010

Research Funding ≥ $1,000

$1,000	Villanova Match Research Program (Support for 1 st -year Student RA)	2022
$3,250	Small Research Grant, Villanova Institute for Research & Scholarship (VIRS)	2021
$15,107	NSF Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant (#BCS1651061)	2017
$1,000	Center for Global Studies Fellowship, Penn State University	2017
$2,000	Superior Teaching and Research (STAR) Award, Penn State University	2016
$2,000	RGSO Dissertation Award, Penn State University	2015
$2,950	Superior Teaching and Research (STAR) Award, Penn State University	2014
$4,000	Graduate Scholar Award, Penn State University	2014
$2,000	Student Research Grant, Truman State University	2009

University of Pennsylvania Integrated Language Science & Technology Series; 16 Apr 2021
3. Legal applications of artificial intelligence for social justice
Villanova University; Charles Widger School of Law; 21 Jan, 2021

4. Visualizing linguistic data in R
Penn State University; Department of Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese; 23 Feb, 2018
5. On the cognitive processing strategies underlying the propagation of sound change
Penn State University; Center for Language Science Speaker Series; 12 Jan, 2018
6. Dimension reduction methods: Principal component analysis, factor analysis, and k-means clustering
Penn State University Department of Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese; 27 Nov, 2017
7. Best practices in data visualization: An introduction to the ggplot2 package in R
University of Pittsburgh; Department of Linguistics; 10 Nov, 2017
8. Echoes from below: Minority adoption of majority sound change
University of Pittsburgh; Linguistics Colloquium Talk; 10 Nov, 2017
9. Cognitive control, phonological integration, and the propagation of sound change
University of Pennsylvania; Common Grounds Speaker Series; 12 May, 2017
10. Shrinking down sound change: Cognitive control and phonological adaptation
Penn State University; Distinguished Language Science Colloquium; 14 April, 2017
11. Using OpenSesame for experiment building
University of Pennsylvania; Language Variation and Cognition Lab; 29 March, 2017
12. RE-assessment and RE-adjustment: Optimizing random effects in linear mixed effects models
Guest lecture in LING 660: Research Seminar in Sociolinguistics, University of Pennsylvania (Instructor: Meredith Tamminga). 20 March, 2017
13. Shifting leftward? Syllable duration and pitch anchoring in Central Argentine Spanish
Ohio State University; Hispanic Linguistics Colloquium; 17 Feb, 2017
14. Dual mechanisms of cognitive control and phonological adaptation
University of Pennsylvania; Language Variation and Cognition lab; 1 Feb, 2017
15. Phonetic alignment in English as a lingua franca: Effects of style, proficiency, and L1 influence
Penn State University; Center for Global Studies Brown Bag Lecture; 28 Sept, 2016
16. The long and short of it: How alignment and cognitive processing may influence sound change
Penn State University; Distinguished Language Science Colloquium; 22 April, 2016
17. When habla isn't the same as está hablando: Grammaticalization of the Spanish Progressive
Truman State University; Sigma Delta Pi Distinguished Alumni Speaker Series; 7 April, 2016
18. How a Liberal Arts education prepared me for graduate school
Truman State University; Sigma Delta Pi Distinguished Alumni Speaker Series; 6 April, 2016
19. Phonetic alignment and style shifting in English as a lingua franca
Truman State University; Sigma Delta Pi Distinguished Alumni Speaker Series; 5 April, 2016
20. Using literature in the study of language change
Truman State University; Sigma Delta Pi Distinguished Alumni Speaker Series; 4 April, 2016
21. Coming together, splitting apart: Vocalic accommodation in EFL discourse
Radboud University Nijmegen; Centre for Language Studies; 15 Feb, 2016
22. Individual differences in the adoption of variable phonology: Preliminary findings
Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics; Sound Learning Lab; 13 Oct, 2015
23. Prosodic and social predictors of speech in central Argentina: The tonada cordobesa
Universiteit Leiden; Centre for Linguistics; 9 October, 2015
24. Transcribing in ELAN by Intonation Units
Penn State University; SPAN 597 Course (Functional Syntax); 26 March, 2015
25. PRAAT scripting workshop
University of British Columbia; Speech in Context Lab; 10 March, 2015
26. Data visualization in R using ggplot2
University of British Columbia; Speech in Context Lab; 9 March, 2015
